IN THE ADJUSTMENT OF GLASSES TO THE EYE (NO MEDICAL TREATMENT, NO SURGICAL TREATMENT, NO AD-VICE, PURELY MECHANICAL & IEN-TIFIC).More eyes are injured by the injudicious use of glasses than arises from any other known cause.No experiments.
No haphazard method of adjustment.
Thorough examinations.
Perfect lenses.Fitting frame adjusted to each individual case.TWENTY YEARS' EXPERIENCE IN THE ONE PURSUIT.Preliminary tests made without charge, so that a visitor is enabled to learn just what condition the refraction or accommodation of the eye may be in, what the cost of the case may be, if then remaining at their option whether they proceed further.Enjoying the honor of introduction of such methods by the distinguished gentlemen whose names follow:

Roanoke, Va., June 27, 1894.

From a personal interview with Louis H.
Matthez, oculo-optician, seeing the character of his work in lenses and spectacles and his names of reference, we feel justified in introducing him and his methods of adjustment of glasses to all anomalies of refraction free from medical or surgical treatment or advice.
